Forthcoming Events

Weekday Lunch Friday 12 April 2019: 1pm Nash Village Hall

This two course lunch is intended as an opportunity for those who are in the village during the day on a weekday to have a sit-down meal with other villagers. It is organised by members of All Saints' Church on a non-profit making basis. Tickets (£5 for adults and £2 for children) are available from Margaret Hedges or Vicky Southby

Tickets will not be sold at the door so do book in advance – letting us know if you're vegetarian or have other special dietary requirements.

Christian Aid Week: 12-18 May 2019

All Saints' Church will be organising the annual house-to-house collection during Christian Aid Week. Please help us to remember others less fortunate than ourselves.

Saturday 1st June – Coffee Morning

Nash Fete 2019 will be held on 15th June

Weather permitting, the fete committee members hope you will join them on the recreation ground on 15th June to help raise funds for the Church and Village Hall and enjoy a traditional village fete. Put the date in your diary and invite your friends. If you're a gardener, pot up those spare plants for the plant stall. Decluttering? Spare a thought for the toy and book stall. Do you have any ideas for new stalls? Can you help on the day, sell tickets for the "Grand Draw"? We welcome any new ideas and volunteers. Please contact Hilary Young and we look forward to seeing you on the day!

The next "Knit and Natta" group will meet on the 9th April from 2.30- 5pm

All are welcome with or without knitting!!
Vicky

A very big thank you to everyone who supported my Fair trade Tea on 27th February. We raised £120 for The Fairtrade Foundation and sold £135 worth of Fairtrade goods to help those working for a fairer world in trade. An excellent result so please remember to keep buying fair trade goods in the shops.
Vicky

The Village Hall Management Committee AGM will be held on Thursday 6th June at 7.00 p.m.

Good Friday Children's Activity April 19th

Come and join us at All Saints on Good Friday morning, 10 – 11am to help build our Easter Garden and hear the Easter Story.
All are welcome, bring a few small flowers for the garden.

Nash Open Gardens

We are hoping to run our Open Gardens again this year, the weekend of June 29th/30th. Please contact Pam King if you would like your garden to feature this year.

Village Pump

We all love our monthly village Pump its a very important resource for the whole village and a chance to get together, but it only happens with your support and time.

Do come along and support at the next "Pump" on 6th April. Fish and Chips from 7.30 if you fancy combining a drink with supper.

We always need Pump hosts and bar helpers so if you fancy stepping in and helping out to pull a pint do let Lesley or Pete know.

NashFest Update

NashFest is in planning for Saturday July 20th.
There is a great line up planned already.

We are very pleased to confirm that this year we are maintaining the price from last year of £10 per entry ticket, with children under 7 free. We are also pleased to announce that there will be a family ticket of £35 for 2 adults and 2 children, ages 7 to 16. These prices are for tickets bought before the day.

Prices will be increased nearer to and on the day to encourage you to make early purchase. This is crucial for the event to have a certain number of tickets sold earlier on to ensure it's feasible to run, and we really would appreciate and encourage early purchase of your NashFest tickets.

It's promising to be another great day for the third festival for Nash!

Please contact us in infoatnashvillagehall@gmail.com for any information.

Nash Neighbourhood Plan

“We need to talk about... the Nash NP”

On March 21st the Nash Neighbourhood Plan (NP) Committee reported their progress, since the end of the period of consultation in early February, to the Nash PC

The Committee have had three full meetings since early February to discuss and consider all comments made. They have also contacted external bodies for clarification of some points raised, especially AVDC.

Little of the main body of the NP required changes, but the exact location of the Settlement Boundary required extensive discussions. Amongst the suggestions adopted were the addition of an appendix to the NP which fully explained the terms, conventions and rules used to define the Settlement Boundary. These include national government guidelines, precedent from other NPs and the criteria upon which the Nash NP is defined.

One interesting response received was from a major national developer of houses which we had not even notified of our NP. Nash is under observation! They raised a number of technical points which we are currently discussing with AVDC. But we did appreciate that they took the time to write to us and show that major national developers are taking an interest in our little village.

While we have been preparing this NP the winds of change have started to blow even more in favour of having an NP. Indeed we have been contacted by at least two other parishes in the area who are considering starting one, asking our advice.

But above all, there is the huge announcement of the “Oxford-Cambridge Corridor” (OCC). This is a proposal of national strategic importance and Nash sits right in the middle of it.

Some comparisons help to illustrate the enormity of what is going to happen. For example, Milton Keynes has about a quarter of a million inhabitants which converts to roughly 100,000 dwellings. The OCC proposes building at least 1 Million homes. That is 10 whole Milton Keynes. Or put another way, about 200 Buckinghams, or 600 Winslows. That is an astonishing amount of building but it appears to have near universal support at national level. We all know London has reached capacity. Huge numbers are leaving for distant commutes, but a better quality of life, every year. We also know that Oxford and Cambridge are national resources of the highest global importance. Tying them together and building employment around them can only benefit the UK. But all these people must live somewhere

Development – on a vast scale – is coming. The question is who controls it? Voting for the NP in the Referendum will show that the residents of Nash want control of their future. The alternative is to allow it to be imposed top down, as will happen to those parishes which do not bother.

Imagine a future where each of the roads out of Nash play host to 500 houses – or maybe far more - with current Nash becoming “Old Nash”, a quaint toy town in a large rural suburb stretching from Whaddon to Buckingham. Is that what you want? Everybody in Nash gets a copy of this Newsletter so get talking to your neighbours about the NP as we move to the final stages of its adoption, the external examination and the referendum.

Nash Parish Council

The village annual litter collection A big thank-you to all who took part in this. There were over 20 volunteers this year which was a record. As a result it was possible to extend the litter collection beyond the parish boundaries dealing with areas where little if any litter collection has taken place for a considerable time. As a result a larger amount of litter was collected and which was removed by AVDC on the following Monday.

Nash Park, unauthorised building activity. The Parish Council understand from AVDC that the hearing of the court action over the High Court injunction was due to take place on 20 February. Another hearing took place on 28 February and the defendants were given until 21 March to file papers. A trial date is then to be set. The Parish Council have asked AVDC to confirm that the current proceedings are dealing with the waste deposited on the site although AVDC have not confirmed this and are generally not forthcoming in providing information to the Parish Council, claiming legal confidentiality. The Parish Council have drawn AVDC's attention to the fact that a large mobile home has been delivered to the site and the Parish Council have requested clarification as to the number of caravans now on site. In response the enforcement officer at AVDC has said that, 'over recent weeks, I have received a number of concerns regarding caravans being moved into the site and out of the site. The exact number of caravans fluctuates on the site and at this point in time, I do not know the exact number of caravans on the site.' The Parish Council continue to pursue these issues with AVDC.

Church Farm rebuilding. The Parish Council has no information as to why no activity has happened on site for many weeks and when the building will be completed. Several residents have commented that the current structure looks larger than the original building.

Whaddon/Little Horwood Roads triangle of land as residents will have noticed this has been completed by Transport for Buckingham and is a huge improvement. Thanks to our BCC Councillor, John Chilver, who obtained the funding for this work.

Meetings. The next meeting of the Parish Council will take place on Wednesday 8 May at 7.00pm in the Village Hall. This will be the Annual Parish Meeting, followed by the Annual Parish Council Meeting. All residents of Nash are welcome to attend and speak.

John Hamilton,

Nash Parish Clerk

Do you need some space to be still and quiet?

Most of the time we live busy, pre-occupied lives filled with activity and distractions. Yet we also need to find space within our lives, to reflect, to listen to ourselves and that of the sacred. For this times of silence can be beneficial and a church can offer a place of silence and a sacred space.

If you would like to share in that silence then please join us on Friday 3 May in Nash church at 7.30pm and fortnightly thereafter. There will be a period of meditation or contemplation in silence for about 20 minutes followed by a short reading, a talk or a discussion with the whole meeting lasting no more than about 40 minutes. The first meeting will consider the purpose and role of silence in our lives. Those attending can help to develop the content of the meetings going forward.

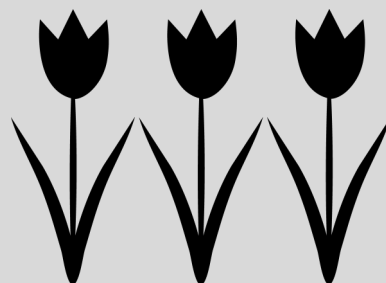

You do not need to book, just come along for the experience. If you want more information then contact John on 01908 502557
